Stop the Worldwide Persecution of Christians

Nun ن the Arabic alphabet (N) in our Roman alphabet is the first letter of the word (Nasara : نصارى) Nazarenes . Muslims have called Christians this since the beginning of their invasion of the Christian world in the 7th century -- Christians under Muslim rule never called themselves this, since the intent of Muslims was to portray Christians as a contemptible and disobedient sect.

IRAN

There are an estimated 250,000 Christians in Iran's 76 million strong population. They face torture, imprisonment or the death sentence under Sharia Law for not observing Islamic religious festivals and dress codes.
